

HARRIETT BUHAI CENTER FOR FAMILY LAW

Our Mission:

We protect victims of domestic violence and improve the well-being of children living in poverty. With the help of volunteers, the Center provides free family law assistance and legal education to the poor. We strive to empower people in need and assure them meaningful access to the courts.

Our Vision:

We aspire to create a community where poverty is not a barrier to those who seek to resolve critical family law matters.

About the Center:

Founded in 1982, the Harriett Buhai Center for Family Law is one of the most innovative legal programs in the nation designed specifically for low income families in turmoil. The focus of the Center's efforts is on legal problems involving custody, visitation, support of children, domestic violence, and establishing parentage.
